In many country precincts the judges kept no copies of the figures they made, and no reports from these will be available until Friday, when the official count will be made in the counties. Then by Saturday there will be changes that may affect the

The one democratic candidate who had competition, but has not any thing to worry about is Judge Wal ter W. Graves for judge of the supreme court. He has 40,000 to spare Probably it is 50,000, though the re turns do not make that figure quite so sure. Graves originally was a Folk appointee and for that was opposed in the ultra-bitter Stone counties, but in most places he led all the way from interest: two to one over his opponent.

It is estimated that 12,000 men went out, the largest number being 2,200 in Montreal and 1,500 here. Two thousand men left work between Fort William and Vaccouver, all at the dictates of the executive. Even old Acting on the theory that the mur- workmen in line for pensions went complete tie-up in the history of rail-recorded in railroad circles. The men's grievance lies in the decision of the conciliation board, which was appointed under the Lemieux act of the Canadian parliament, which was not in accord with their demands. The Canadian Pacific railway view is that the finding of the board appointed at the request of the men should, in the company's opinion, be binding on the men. The Canadian Pacific railway not only did not seek arbitration, but, believing the board to be hostile to their interests, witharew their representative, and the government appointed another arbitrator to represent the company, who, therefore, was not officially accepted-

"RUINED" GRAIN CROPS.

The reports of injury to the corn and wheat crops which have stampeded the Board of Trade in Chicago should not be given too much credence especially, until reliable confirmation of the news is received. That stories of disaster to both the wheat and corn crop should be received by grain speculators the same day from the west looks as though they may have more foundation in the fertile brains of the market manipulators than in fact. It is a strange coincidence, to say the least, that the corn in the central west should be prostrated by the heat the same day the deadly black rust is discovered to be slaughtering

Every year, and with increasing emphasis, when there is a prospect il large crops, conflicting rumors filter in upon the Chicago Board of Trade and other grain exchanges. Telegrams of disaster follow those of optimism, and vice versa, the evident purpose of which is to influence the prices of future deliveries, or in other words, to make gambling by speculators more interesting. As a matter of fact, the indications all through the country are for a heavy crop of cereals and all other products. The farmers are looking forward in all quarters to bountiful harvests, and if anything radically wrong with the crops had developed it is pretty certain that the country would have heard from the agriculturists before the Chicago Board of Trade got the information from paid correspondents second hand.

CRUSADE AGAINST SHEATH GOWN

Despite This, There Are Many Who Favor It, and Its "Merits" Are Nov! Discussed on Both Sides of Atlantic.

(By Catherine Mann-Payzant.)

New York, Aug. 6 .- Owing to the incovation of the directoire costume, the skirt has become the most talked of part of feminine dress. Last autumn M. Paquin, of Paris, now dead, inaugurated the new movement by creating a limp, close-fitting skirt that actually revealed the figure. Some women immediately began to cry out against it, while others as enthusiastically championed it. The crusade for and against the sheath gown has now become international in extent. In England, Queen Alexandra has banished the new mode from polite society by the frown of her displeasure. In this country, however, the mode is slowly gaining in favor, although it is at present worn by society women only in a subdued and modified form.

While the real Greek costume is one of clinging folds and graceful lines, the faddists of fashionable Paris have followed not so much the classic model as the modifications or atremes of it as created by the ladies of the First Empire.

While it is not likely that the Amnican woman will ever attempt any such extreme as Paris, there is no doubt that for some occasions the sheath skirt has already made a place for itself.

One of the fabrics liked for these lew skirts is satin or those of soft material that have the qualities for good draping. FOR THREE WEEKS, DICK WAT ERHOUSE, A NEGRO, REFUSED FOOD IN KANSAS JAIL.

HE KILLED HIS WIFE ON JULY 20

At the Time of His Death He Weighed but Ninety Pounds-Would Not Talk of His Crime.

Coffeyville, Kan., Aug. 6.- Dick Waterhouse, the negro who murdered his wife here three weeks ago, died Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock in his cell in the county jail. His death was due to starvation.

For three weeks Dick Waterhouse had been confined in the county jail. He gradually starved himself to J. L. Benjamin has sold his fine death. He ate only when forced by the pangs of hunger. Then it was only a bit to keep body and soul to-Mrs. Elzy Bradford is mourning the gether, and the sheriff had to force the food down his throat

Two weeks ago, when Waterhouse was arraigned in the city court here, persons who knew him predicted he would not live to be tried.

His trial was set for the October term of the district court. Since the murder took place he has refused to talk concerning the killing.

He has occasionaly said he killed his wife in self-defense, but usually backed down on the assertion when cross-questioned.

Waterhouse also had an acute at ack of melancholia and refused to talk even to his friends. In three weeks' time he lost nearly fifty pounds, at the time of his death he weighed only 90 pounds.

Waterhouse shot his wife the morning of July 20 and then beat her brains out with a hammer. The murder was caused by her refusing to live with him.

Cattle receipts, 7500, which included only 3,000 natives. Most of those were medium killing grades; nothing strictly choice on sale. All steers good enough to sell at $5.75 or over were fully steady with yesterday; those coming under that price declined about 10c per cwt. Good light butcher heifers sold fully 10c higher than yesterday; medium heifers and all cows about steady. Weal calves strong; top, $6.75. Supplies of stockers and feeders very small, but under

The entire inner portion of our bodies is covered with a soft, delicate lining called mucous membrane; this is kept in healthy condition by the nourishment and vital vigor it receives from the blood. So long as the circulation remains pure this membrane will be healthy, but when the blood becomes infected with catarrhal impurities and poisons this inner lining o the body becomes irritated and diseased, and the unpleasant and serious symptoms of Catarrh commence. There is a tight, stuffy feeling in the nose, watery eyes, buzzing noises in the ears, often slight deafness, difficult breathing, etc. The disease cannot be reached by external treatment, though such measures afford temporary relief in some instances. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impurities and poisons. Then as rich, pure blood circulates through the body, the inflamed, irritated membranes heal, the discharge ceases, headaches are relieved and every symptom disappears. Catarrh, being a disease in which the entire blood circulation is affected, can only be cured by a remedy that goes to the very bottom and removes every particle of the impurity from the blood, and this is just what S. S. does. Book on Catarrh and any medical advice free to all who THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

TIS STILL NATION OF MIDDLE AGES

Daily Executions Have Been Held Since the Abronation of the Constitution - Attempt to Dethrone the Shah.

Teheran, Aug. 6.-Two years ago today, on August 6 1906, Muzaffer-ed Din, then shah-in-shah and king of kings, gave the people a parliament. Teday, under the reign of Mohammed All Mirza, the parliament is dis solved, the constitution abrogated and the despotic monarchy restored. Throughout the unhappy country, now but a shadow of the glorious empire of Cyrus, the starving people are crying for bread. Arn.ed and ruthless Cos sacks parade the streets, ready to maim and slay on the slightest provo cation, or without it. The anniver sary of Persian "liberty" is a bitter one for the Persian people.

surprise to the foreign residents o Teheran. Persia is still a nation the middle ages and is far from ready for a constitutional govern ment. There is no equivalent for that word in the Persian language. The masses are absolutely illiterate. Not one in ten thousand can kead or write, and there is no middle class. History does not record a single instance of constitutional government ir a country where the Mohammedan reign prevails, and it is contended that the two cannot exist in the same

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure, triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol, so generally employed. So the now world-famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and ever the affairs of the empire to parliament. While touring Europe, he was sunstruck, and died early last

The present shah of Persia, Mohammed Ali Mirza, followed his father to the throne on January 9, 1907. He was the first monarch of Persia to begin his rule under a constitution. A national council was convoked by him, but it never fulfilled the hopes brought them the reforms they demanded. The administration of the country has been in a state of chaos for several years, and the popular discontent has been extreme.

The latter part of December, di turbance were rife in Teheran an l other Persian cities, the lack of cooperation between the shah and the parliament leading to the issuance by parliament of a manifesto in which it was set forth, that the shah was violating his covenant with the people and asking that the rights of the peo rle be not permitted to be trodden under foot. The ill-feeling of the local factions in Teheran developed, about December 20, into hostile demenstrations. There was shooting on the streets of the capital and the op losing factions gathered in large i.umbers in the vicinity of the parlia ment buildings and erected barri cades. The constitutionalists loudly cemanded the abdication of the shah The shah finally accepted the demands made or, him by the constituconal leaders and this episode came

For a time there was comparative quiet, until on February 28 of this year an attempt was made to assas sinate the shah with a bomb.
